DECLARATION OF STEVEN L. HIGHLANDER
UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.47

Box DAC
Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

I, Steven L. Highlander, declare that:

1. I am a U.S. citizen, residing at 6604 Cypress Point North, Austin, Texas. I am a partner with the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski in Austin, Texas.

2. Dr. Toohyon Cho is a former employee of Introgen Therapeutics, Inc., the entity which owns all intellectual property rights of the present invention. Dr. Cho is a co-inventor of the above-referenced patent application and owes a duty of assignment by virtue of his employment agreement at Introgen.

3. In the filing of a previous patent application, U.S. Serial No. 08/975,519, of which the present application is continuation-in-part, Dr. Cho was informed of Inventors' Oath and Declaration papers that required his signature. Dr. Cho was forwarded a complete copy of the application papers, including the specification, claims, abstract, drawings, Oath and Declaration, via Federal Express to his last known address: 874 Yorkchester, #102, Houston, Texas 77079. I personally contacted Dr. Cho by telephone and Dr. Cho indicated his unwillingness to sign the Oath and Declaration papers which were sent to him with the patent application. Dr. Cho was contacted a second time by telephone and he again refused to sign the inventors' Oath and Declaration.

4. We believe Dr. Cho's country of citizenship to be Korea.

5. In the normal course of business, on March 31, 1999, Onita Cheyne, a patent paralegal of our firm, forwarded a complete copy of the present application, including the specification, claims, abstract, drawings, along with an Oath and Declaration, to Dr. Cho via Federal Express to his last known address: 874 Yorkchester, #102, Houston, Texas 77079. On April 2, 1999, Onita Cheyne received a telephone call from Federal Express stating that Dr. Cho could not be reached at his last known address. The enclosed documents were returned via

Federal Express on April 2, 1999, as undeliverable (see earlier submitted Declaration of Onita Cheyne).

6. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true and that all statements made herein on information and belief are believed to be true; and further, that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under § 1001 of Title 18 of the U.S. Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.
